BOND ISSUE STILL HELD UP.

BROOKLYN ALDERMEN INSIST ON MORE MONEY FOR THEIR BOROUGH.

The Board of Aldermen yesterday again failed to pass the resolution to authorize the issue of $23.-600,000 of bonds for improvements in Manhattan and The Bronx, the Brooklyn Aldermen still refusing to SAM T. JACK'S THEATRE. vote for the measure and trying to make terms for larger appropriations for Brooklyn.

Before the resolution was taken up by the Board the courtesies of the floor were extended to a delegation from the local labor organizations, repre-senting men in the stone-cutting and other trades, and the delegates made speeches calling on the Board of Aldermen to do all in its power to put the laboring men of the city at work on city works. They said that the Mayor and Controller had offered to push the public works along at once when the Municipal Assembly should approve of the bonds. There was considerable applause from the Tammany members of the Board, but little from the Brooklyn contingent.

All other business having been disposed of before 2 o'clock, Alderman Glick proposed to vote upon the report of the Pinance Committee in favor of the $2,000,000 bond issue. Alderman Wafer, of Brook-lyn, wanted a discussion first. He said that he was as much in favor of passing the bond issue-even for Manhattan improvements—as Manhattan mem-bers. But he thought the Board of Estimate should pass $5,000,000 of bonds for Brooklyn improvements. He had noticed a $2.000,000 appropriation for a small park not a quarter of a mile from Central Park. He thought these things could be allowed to walt in order to relieve Brooklyn people, who are going without lights and without properly paved streets.

The Mayor and Corporation Counsel, he said, had been six months finding out that there was a little margin below the debt limit, and now all the mar-gin was to be used for Manhattan. He suggested laying the matter over for a week, while the Board should urge the Board of Estimate to remember Brooklyn.

should urge the Board of Estimate to remember Brooklyn.

Aiderman McCall, of Manhattan, reminded the Brooklyn members that one-half of the laborers of Brooklyn earn their living in Manhattan, and that they were hurting their own constituents by holding up public improvements in Manhattan.

Aiderman McInness, of Brooklyn, moved that the report be referred back to the Finance Committee with instructions to wait upon the Board of Estimate and see if Brooklyn could not be provided for. An argument followed in which the Brooklyn members demanded at least $5.00.000 of the bond issue. The motion was vated down.

The vote was called for Alderman Bridges, of Brooklyn, voted for the bond issue. He said that he voted 'aye' on the word of Controller Coler, who had told blim that Brooklyn's interests were going to be looked out for and that Brooklyn Alderman should not vote against the bond issue. The vote was $8 for the bond issue and il against it, the resolution being lost because the charter requires a three-fourths vote for a financial measure, A metion to reconsider was carried, and one by Alderman Wafer, of Brooklyn, to instruct the Finance Committee to call on the Board of Estimate was lost. Alderman Glick moved to adjourn, and there was a hubbub at once. The motion to adjourn was voted down. Delegate Kelley, from District Assembly No. 49. K. of L. who was in the delegation from the labor organizations, got upon the floor and said that the laboring men had little to expect from the Brooklyn members of the Board of Aldermen. The delegates filed out in disgust. The bond matter was again put on special orders for 3 p. m. next Tuesday.

In financial circles here it is stated that the Baitimore committee would be willing to sell the preferred stock to the New-York committee at $75 a share. It is now worth about $50 a share.
